Editor's Note

Dear Students,

As I take over the coordination duties for the APCE MA program, we are facing the reality of another year of pandemic times. I'm grateful for our face-to-face students who are wearing their masks and doing their best to social distance. I am also grateful that our online students help to sustain such vibrant (and) safe e-learning environments! I am also grateful to be in this new and exciting role where I will be working to support your learning!

Sincerely,
Dr. Jeremy Bohonos
