ESL Concentration- Hybrid

Alexis Garcia works at Austin Community College as ESL instructor and is CELTA/ TOEFL certified. Other work experiences include areas such as coaching, editing, public speaking, and information technology systems.

"I have taught English for 10 years in the U.S., Spain, and Saudi Arabia. Teaching English language learners is my passion. I enjoy spending time with my daughter, reading, and dancing."

WCCE Concentration- Fully online

Rosie Darby is a committed member of the Austin community working to protect and support women's rights and the art community through her political advocacy and non-profit leadership work.

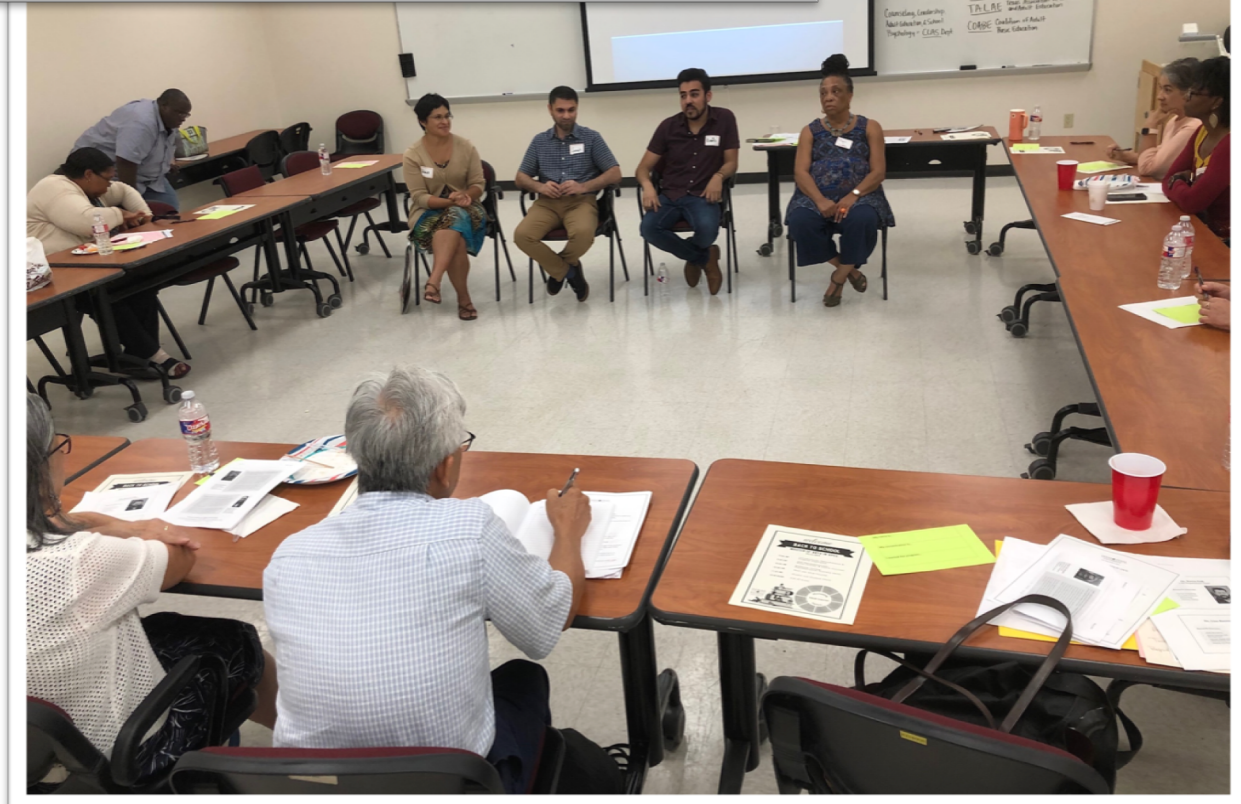

"My dream is to create a Texas Civil Rights Museum that can serve as an educational venue to house and display the contributions of all of Texans to the Civil Rights struggle."

The Master of Arts in APCE got together on September 14.

It was exciting to have faculty and students together.

Thank you all who attended!

Panel session: From left to right, Alexis Garcia (current student), Samah Yousif (alum), Luis Baeza (alum), and Rosie Darby (current student). Thank you for participating as panelist and helping us make the MA student orientation meeting a success! Thank you for sharing your wisdom and advice!
