Editor's Note

Dear Students,

Congratulations on starting a new semester! More than long and sunny days, summer is the time to renew ourselves and readjust our goals. Please give yourselves the chance.

This newsletter is packed with information about opportunities and accomplishments. Let's take the time to plan for new goals and celebrate what we have achieved together.

"Celebrate life in all its glory. Challenge yourself to let the routine sing and the new dance." - Maximillian Degenez

Sincerely,
Dr. Larrotta

Internship Experience 2020

Nicole Clarkson completed her internship with Austin Community College- Launch and Go Program. She developed learning packets related to social and emotional learning and family engagement.

La Tonya Coleman was an intern at Literacy Achieves- Dallas. She designed curriculum focusing on the centennial celebration of women's suffrage, prepared learning resources and student meetings.

Rikki Jiang volunteered for Adult Curriculum for Community, Employment, and Social Skills (ACCESS). She developed summative/formative evaluation for programs, lessons on sex education and nutrition, and multimedia resources (YouTube, Blogs).

Amanda Longtain completed her internship with The Hospitality Kitchen. She wrote grants, developed curriculum, planned for funding, and collaborated with ACC, Haze, and Austin ISD in different endeavors.

Ayesha Mukaddam collaborated with Excel Center, Schwab WINS (Women's Inclusion Networking Services). She helped plan the Women in Technology event, researched relevant topics, prepared presentations, and developed marketing strategies.

Omayma Raafat volunteered at Austin Community College. She designed an online student demographic information survey, and helped developing curriculum on topics related to job skills, building confidence, and resume writing.

*Congratulations on your perseverance and great work finishing internship during such trying times.
 Your contributions to the different adult education programs in our communities will not go unnoticed.*
