Editor's Note

Dear Students,

This is an invitation to start the fall semester with optimism and faith. Personally, I am thrilled to welcome you as a returning or new student to the San Marcos campus as well as the virtual classroom environment.

Please remember we are here to support you to succeed. We are a phone call away and will meet you in person, via Zoom, or telephone.

Together we can make this a great semester for a brighter 2021. Let us look ahead and get inspired by each other's confidence and excellence.

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm"

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Sincerely,
Dr. Larrotta

Student Highlights

Workplace, Community, and Continuing Education

Nicole Clarkson started working at the Excel Center for Adults, the only adult high school in Texas, as an English teacher and am now a Campus Director.

“I am excited to share that I was recently invited to present my work in social and emotional learning with adults at the National Excel Center conference.”

Graduate Certificate in Adult ESL/EFL

Nolan Baak is fascinated with languages and aspires to be an ESL teacher in the U.S. and abroad or a linguist in the military.

“I feel extremely fortunate to have been afforded the opportunity to live and work abroad this year. This fall I will work as an assistant English teacher in Spain.”
