Editor's Note:

Greetings!

I would like to encourage you to read this newsletter and participate by sending your news and stories. The main goal of the newsletter is to promote community building among the students and faculty in our master's program.

This will be a space to promote academic and professional activities, learn from each other, and celebrate your accomplishments as students and professionals.

Sincerely, Dr. Larrotta

The best part of learning is sharing what you know - Vaughn K. Laurer

Outstanding Graduate Student Award Nominee

Braulio Amezaga has been nominated to represent the master's program to compete for the Outstanding Graduate Student Award this year.

Braulio works as Audio/Visual Tech at UT Health San Antonio School of Nursing Center for Simulation innovation. His background spans several disciplines including psychology, education, audio/visual technology, quality improvement data collection/management, and simulation technology.
These perspectives have influenced his understanding of the medical field and the use of technology in the clinical and education setting.

Student Highlights

ESL Concentration- Hybrid program

Elizabeth L. Escamilla teaches in adult and community education in two of San Antonio's public school districts: SAISD and NEISD. Both are similar programs under the Texas Workforce Commission. In her words,

"I enjoy teaching both beginning and intermediate ESL students in a classroom setting. The students are from Mexico, Central & South America, Africa, Asia, and the Middle East and are eager to learn English. I am privileged to be able to apply my education so immediately to the classroom each semester."

WCCE Concentration- Fully online

Linh Van Huynh is currently the lead pastor of the Vietnamese Evangelical Congregation in Austin. Linh wanted to share with us that,

"The Adult Education master's with online courses fits my schedule at work and supports my continuing education. Under the guidance of knowledgeable and caring professors, I have gained more professional knowledge, field experiences, team spirit which enrich my life and expand the horizons of my career."
