Overview of Tips

Do This!

1. Graphically display the theoretical / conceptual framework
2. Integrate language from the Request for Applications (RFA)
3. Build the “right” team
4. Connect the project to “improved outcomes” and “long-term solutions”
5. Include an itemized budget justification

Overview of Tips

Not That! – Pitfalls to Avoid

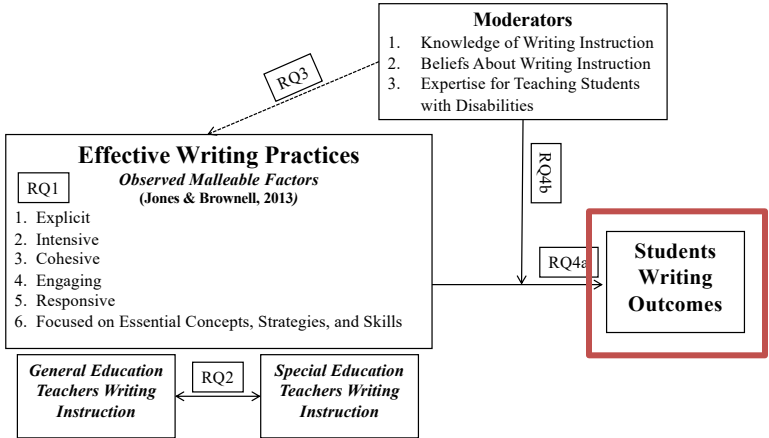

1. Failing to demonstrate how the project addresses a critical need
2. Proposing a study that is not feasible
3. Not introducing all variables / factors
4. Not developing a writing “game plan”
5. Resisting flexibility when not funded

Do This #1: Graphically display the theoretical / conceptual framework

The diagram illustrates a conceptual framework for writing instruction. At the top right is a box labeled 'Moderators' containing three items: 1. Knowledge of Writing Instruction, 2. Beliefs About Writing Instruction, and 3. Expertise for Teaching Students with Disabilities. A dashed arrow labeled 'RQ3' points from this box to a central box labeled 'Effective Writing Practices' with the subtitle 'Observed Malleable Factors (Jones & Brownell, 2013)'. This central box lists six factors: 1. Explicit, 2. Intensive, 3. Cohesive, 4. Engaging, 5. Responsive, and 6. Focused on Essential Concepts, Strategies, and Skills. Below this central box are two boxes: 'General Education Teachers Writing Instruction' on the left and 'Special Education Teachers Writing Instruction' on the right, connected by a double-headed arrow labeled 'RQ2'. An arrow labeled 'RQ4a' points from the 'Effective Writing Practices' box to a red-bordered box on the right labeled 'Students Writing Outcomes'. A vertical arrow labeled 'RQ4b' points from the 'Moderators' box down to the arrow connecting the 'Effective Writing Practices' box to the 'Students Writing Outcomes' box.

Do This #1b: Graphically display the theoretical / conceptual framework

Note: *Inclusion of reading competence as an exploratory control variable in the models will depend upon how frequently such data is reported.

Figure 1. Conceptual framework depicting the exploration of what writing interventions are effective in Grades K-5 on what writing outcomes, for whom, and under what conditions.

Do This #2: Integrate language from the Request for Applications (RFA)

Phrases from the IES RFA CFDA 34.305A (FY20):

Topic: Literacy/Reading & Writing
Project Type: Exploration

❖ “NCER’s goal is to identify what works for whom, in what context, and why in order to provide reliable information about how to improve education outcomes and narrow achievement gaps for U.S. students.”

Collins, Ciullo, and Graham (2020-2022)

Award R305A200363
<https://ies.ed.gov/funding/grantsearch/details.asp?ID=4483>

❖ Purpose: For this project, the research team will conduct a research synthesis, including a comprehensive meta-analysis, to explore what writing interventions are effective on what writing outcomes, for whom, and under what conditions in kindergarten through grade 5.

Do This #3: Build the “Right” Team

Questions to consider when building your team:

- ❖ Who will contribute content expertise?
- ❖ What specialized methodological expertise is needed?
- ❖ What percentage of time should each team member dedicate to the project?
- ❖ What other specialized areas are needed for the specific project?
- ❖ What are the responsibilities of each team member?

Do This #4: Connect the Project to “improved outcomes” and “long-term solutions”

graph LR
    A[Target Population] --> B[Intervention]
    B --> C[Proximal Outcomes]
    C --> D[Distal Outcomes]

Do This #5: Include an Itemized Budget Justification

Travel	Airfare/ Transportation	Hotel	Registration	Per diem meals	Excess Cost	Totals (per year)
Number of staff traveling
IES Project Directors Meeting per person	$400 airfare	1 room for 3 nights @$251 a night for Years 1 & 2 ($251 × 3 = $753)	n/a	$76 for 3 days ($76 × 3 = $228)	$10	$3,000 for Years 1 & 2
Total = 1 PI per year	$109 for parking and ground transportation					($1,500 each year for PI)
	($400 + $109 = $509)
Conference Travel per person	$400 airfare	1 room for 2 nights @$200 a night ($200 × 2 = $400)	$400	$59 per person for 3 days ($59 × 3 = 177)	$64	$9,300 for Year 2
Total = 3 PI/Co-PIs × 2 trips in Years 2	$109 for parking and ground transportation ($400 + $109 = $509)					($1,550 × 2 per person for 3 PI/Co-PIs)

Points to Ponder

1. How do these tips align with general grant writing strategies?

2. What is different and specific to IES?

12

Not That #1: Failing to demonstrate how the project addresses a critical need

Failing to articulate the project need for researchers, practitioners, and students

Failing to provide a comprehensive review of previous (and related) projects

Not That #2: Proposing a study that is not feasible

Me writing my first few grant proposals:

Reviewers:

Not That #3: Not introducing all variables / factors

15

15

Not That #4: Not developing a writing “game plan”

❖ Pitfalls to avoid

- Roles and expectations not clearly defined
- Assuming you have “all summer” to write
- Not providing ORSP with adequate time for checking documents, uploading, etc.

16

Not That #5: Resisting flexibility when not funded

08/04/2016	Forwarded for Peer Review	View Scores	Summary Statement	Not Recommended for Funding (Discussed by Full Panel)
08/06/2015	Forwarded for Peer Review	Not Forwarded for Full Panel Discussion and Scoring	Summary Statement	Not Recommended for Funding (Not Forwarded to Full Panel)
