F-1 Concurrent/Correspondence

Ph: 512-245-7966, Email: international@txstate.edu, www.international.txstate.edu

The Department of Homeland Security allows F-1 students to be enrolled in two different SEVIS-approved institutions at once as long as the combined enrollment amounts to a full-time course of study (9 hours for graduate, 12 for undergraduate).

Procedures:

- 1. Meet with academic/faculty advisor to ensure concurrent or correspondence courses are applicable to degree program.
- 2. Contact concurrent institution for admission requirements. You may need a Transient Enrollment Approval Letter.
- 3. Submit the F-1 Concurrent/Correspondence Enrollment Form to ISSS using the Concurrent/Correspondence Enrollment Request Portal: https://www.international.txstate.edu/forms/Concurrent-Enrollment.html.
- 4. Enroll in courses at Texas State and concurrent institution (or correspondence).
- 5. At the end of the semester, submit your concurrent institution transcript by email to international@txstate.edu.
- 6. Contact Undergraduate Admissions or the Graduate College for transfer credit policies and procedures.
- 7. Resubmit this form for every semester you plan to enroll concurrently or take correspondence course.
