To enroll in classes, I must submit to The Graduate College: 1) an online, non-degree-seeking application and fee, 2) one official transcript from the institution granting my highest degree (uploaded transcripts will not meet this requirement), and 3) this completed Non-Degree-Seeking Student Form to my online application, including all department-provided approvals.

to the semester in which I am taking the courses. In some cases, I must obtain the required overrides and/or subsequent approvals

As courses must be approved on a semester-by-semester basis, I must complete a new Non-Degree-Seeking Student Form for each semester I intend to study as a non-degree-seeking student. For subsequent semesters, the updated form should be submitted by email to gradcollege@txstate.edu.

I understand that admission as a non-degree-seeking student does not constitute admission to a master's or doctoral degree program at Texas State, nor does it imply that satisfactory work will guarantee admission to a degree-granting program. (Courses taken will be shown as "post-baccalaureate" credit on your Texas State transcript. If you are admitted to a degree program, up to six hours of graduate-level courses completed with a grade of "B" or better may be petitioned for degree credit.)

I understand that, if I am classified as a non-U.S. citizen or non-U.S. permanent resident, I must fulfill the non-degree-seeking student admission requirements outlined for international students.

I understand that, if I need to update my personal information (name, phone number, etc.), I must contact the Office of the University Registrar or make changes in Texas State Self-Service.

Please provide the following information for the Texas State courses in which you would like to enroll: Semester: Fall Spring Summer Year: __
