Awards Ceremony
09 April 2015
6:00 pm

Artes Liberales

The phrase “liberal arts” comes from the Latin “artes liberales”—the subjects that free people ought to study.

A liberal arts education provides broad knowledge in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Liberal arts majors learn to think and write, to synthesize and analyze, to identify problems and find solutions. These skills are essential for the varied occupations liberal arts majors pursue—and for their full and informed participation in the democratic process as “free people.”

Presented by Liberal Arts Department Chairs and Center Directors

Reception

Note

The faculty and students of the College of Liberal Arts are deeply grateful to the many individuals and groups who have made possible the scholarships and other awards being presented at this ceremony. Some departments in the college present additional awards at their own ceremonies.

At the back of this program, you will find a list of academic awards presented by the college and its departments and centers. For information about these awards and the generous donors who have made them possible, please visit:

liberalarts.txstate.edu/services/scholarships.html

If you are interested in establishing or supporting a scholarship for Liberal Arts students, please contact the college.

We take great pride in the accomplishments of our students, and we thank you for helping us to honor them this evening.

Special thanks to the staff of the College of Liberal Arts for their support in making tonight's ceremony and reception possible.
