

Afro-Caribbean Lab [ACL]
MUSE 5129
Fall 2016
TR 5-5:50pm

Join professor Samuel López in this new experimental ensemble. Students will work on a platform of Afro-Caribbean genres and rhythms while welcoming jazz, classical, and world music techniques, all as part of a creative approach to advanced performance, improvisation, and arranging. Horns, percussion, bass, piano, and vocals are invited to audition.

Contact Samuel López at s11167@txstate.edu for more information.
