

Texas State University

The Alfred H. Nolle Chapter of the Alpha Chi National College Honor Society is pleased to recognize

Dr. Russel Lang

All who read this honor are informed that this is indeed a

Favorite Professor

As noted by the graduate inductees to the Chapter, Fall 2013.

President

Vice President

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

October 21, 2011

Russell Lang
Curriculum and Instruction
308A Education Building
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent August 2011 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

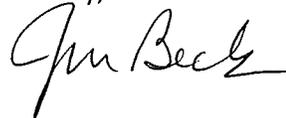

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Rocio Gonzalez Hinojosa's comment:

Dr. Lang, I just wanted to thank you for your commitment and hard work in the autism field! You are a true inspiration for many students including myself. Passion and real vocation for teaching is very noticeable in you, and I am glad to have professors like you! Sincerely, Rocio Gonzalez

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Dr. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management and Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

October 21, 2011

Russell Lang
Curriculum and Instruction
308A Education Building
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent August 2011 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Tyler Holt's comment:

You are a great and motivating teacher!

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Dr. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management and Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

July 1, 2011

Dr. Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
308A College of Education
Texas State University – San Marcos

Dear Dr. Lang:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent May 2011 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Megan Amidon

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Dr. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

July 1, 2011

Dr. Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
308A College of Education
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Dr. Lang:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent May 2011 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Elizabeth DeLaune's comment:

Dr. Lang is an excellent role model, professor, and a valuable asset to the department. He is extremely knowledgeable about the field of Autism. He was an excellent mentor, and I have learned an enormous amount about research and feel that he has well prepared me for a Ph.D. program.

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Dr. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

February 17, 2012

Russell Lang
Curriculum and Instruction
3045 Education Building
Texas State University – San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent December 2011 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Courtney Britt

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Dr. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

November 16, 2012

Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
3008A ED
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

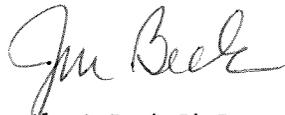

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent August 2012 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Kristina Field

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Beck, Ph.D.
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

November 16, 2012

Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
3008A ED
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

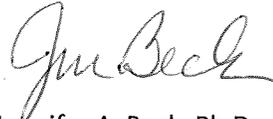

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent August 2012 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Jennifer Ninci

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Beck, Ph.D.
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

November 30, 2012

Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
3008A ED
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent August 2012 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Peggy Derby's comment:

Dr. Lang, I enjoyed your classes immensely. You made sometimes difficult material easy to understand, and you have been so helpful. Thanks for all that you do for the university and the students! You make Texas State a better university!

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Beck, Ph.D.
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

March 25, 2013

Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent December 2012 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Amber Lindeman's Comment:

Thanks for the impeccable training, devotion, education, and sarcasm you have taught me!

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Ms. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS
The rising STAR of Texas

August 6, 2013

Russell Lang
Curriculum and Instruction
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

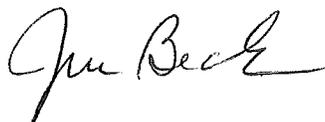

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University-San Marcos who made a contribution to their academic career:

Amy Tostanoski's Comment:

Thanks so much for your huge contributions to my achievements! I appreciate the writing opportunities, the reference letters, and the many nudges in the right direction.

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Dr. Jennifer A. Beck
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS★STATE
UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS

The rising STAR of Texas

November 11, 2013

Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
3008A Education Building
Texas State University-San Marcos

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent August 2013 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University who made a contribution to their academic career:

Roberta Cordell's comment:

I'm not a person of many words (unless I'm taking one of your quizzes), but I wanted to express my gratitude to you for everything you have taught me over the past 2 years. You are an amazing professor and you made the classes so interesting. Not only did I learn so much but you had a way of making us, the students, dig deeper into ourselves so we could understand the concepts even more. Thank you.

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Vice President for Student Affairs Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Beck, Ph.D.
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

TEXAS  STATE
UNIVERSITY

The rising STAR of Texas

April 30, 2014

Russell Lang
Curriculum And Instruction
3008A College of Education
Texas State University

Dear Russell:

As part of the Graduating Student Recognition of Campus Support program, an e-mail celebrating the success of our recent December 2013 graduates was sent late last semester. They were congratulated on their accomplishments and were asked to name any faculty or staff member(s) that they felt contributed significantly to their success and development.

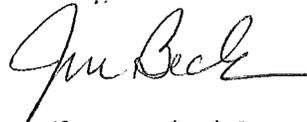

Congratulations! You were named by the following graduate as a person at Texas State University who made a contribution to their academic career:

Meaghan Kirchner's comment:

Dr. Lang, Thank you for sharing your knowledge and experience with your students. I have taken so much away from your classes and am grateful for my time at Texas State with you. I appreciate the enthusiasm and humor you bring each day and am sad to see this time come to an end. Thank you for everything!Meaghan Kirchner

There is always a sense of accomplishment in knowing that your efforts during the past year have dramatically influenced the lives of one or more graduates. Throughout the year, you have given your time and talent to many students. It is dedicated individuals such as you that make a real difference in our student's academic and personal development. It is my pleasure to be able to thank you on behalf of the student(s) whose life/lives you have touched. The students appreciate it, and we in the Retention Management and Planning Office offer our thanks for helping make Texas State "The Rising Star of Texas"!

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Beck, Ph.D.
Director, Retention Management & Planning

cc: Dr. Joanne H. Smith,
Vice President for Student Affairs

RETENTION MANAGEMENT AND PLANNING

601 UNIVERSITY DRIVE | SAN MARCOS, TEXAS 78666-4684 | phone 512.245.5500 | WWW.TXSTATE.EDU

Texas State University was founded in 1899.

MEMBER THE TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM™