

Council of Academic Deans
September 8, 2015

Summary and Action Items

- New VPFSS: Dr. Bourgeois introduced Mr. Eric Algoe, Texas State University's new Vice President for Finance and Support Services.
- Volunteers: Dr. Bourgeois distributed a memo from Dr. Joanne Smith asking that events such as Family Weekend, Move-In Weekend/Bobcat Preview, Bobcat Days and NSO Parent and Family Dinners be considered university wide events allowing staff who work these events to be considered eligible for earning compensatory time. Discussion was held among the Council and it was agreed that yes, with supervisor approval, staff who work these approved university wide events would be eligible to earn compensatory time.
- Undergraduate Admissions Report: Dr. Michael Heintze provided the Council with the undergraduate admissions report.
- Graduate Admissions Report: Dr. Andrea Golato provided the Council with the graduate admissions report.
