

Council of Academic Deans
September 3, 2013

Summary and Action Items

- Master's Thesis Research Support Fellowship: Dr. Andrea Golato announced to the Council that a Master's Thesis Research Support Fellowship has been developed for students registering in the thesis B portion of their graduate degree. This fellowship will provide 28 fellowships in the amount of $2,000. A call will be sent from The Graduate College in a couple of weeks.
- National Graduate Student Appreciation Week, April 7-13, 2014: Dr. Golato announced next year's National Graduate Student Appreciation week, which supports and shows appreciation to graduates and professional graduate students for their accomplishments on campus.
- Undergraduate Admissions Report: Dr. Bourgeois provided the Council with an undergraduate admissions report.
- Graduate Admissions Report: Dr. Golato provided the Council with a graduate admissions report.

Off Agenda

- Dr. Edna Rehbein announced that Everyday Gourmet 2 Go is the new official food service at the Round Rock Campus. She also announced that the health clinic will open next week.