A Resolution

A resolution to be known as "Sensitivity Training Act", relating to a requirement of all members of Student Government to attend sensitivity training for marginalized communities provided by offices and/or departments at Texas State University during their first semester as a member in order to better serve our constituents.

WHEREAS: the Texas State University Student Government senate voted in favor of a bill entitled "Sensitivity Training Act" and

WHEREAS: the Graduate House of Representatives acknowledges that House Representatives are appointed to serve a diverse student population, which requires representatives to be prepared to interact with and serve students from all communities, such as, but not limited to, LGBTQIA+, Veterans, Undocumented Students, Students of Color, International students, transfer students, non-traditional students, etc, all of which should be served to the best of the ability of the House Representatives, and

WHEREAS: student government constitution article IV 8 (b) states that "Through resolution, the House shall have other powers, including: concur or reject, without amendment, Senate changes to rules regarding ethics, member performance standards, discipline, and budget processes in order for any such bill originating in the senate to be considered passed and sent to the President for approval and enactment" and

BE IT RESOLVED: that the Graduate House of Representatives concur with the senate bill titled "Sensitivity Training Act" and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That upon passage this legislation be forwarded to the Student Body President.
