“Contents:

- 1. Don Quijote (his lance is missing) & Sancho (on burro)
- 2. 3 tagged figurines from Mexico
- 3. 4 tagged figures from Spain
- 4. All the remainder are from New Mexico,

Of these, 4 are signed by Frank Brito: 2 are burros, 1 is a sheep, and 1 is a roadrunner, the N. Mex. state bird. The bear does not appear to be a Brito. The Britos were originally Tlaxcalan Indians from central Mexico who in the early colonial period settled in Santa Fe’s Barrio de Analco.

- 5. Small turtle, N. Mex.

- 6. Large plastic gray mule.”

Marc Simmons Accessions 2015-172 and 2016-027

The majority of materials consist of subject files covering New Mexico and the US West from colonial period until modern times. Subject files may contain notes and drafts by Simmons and others, correspondence between Simmons and others, photographs, clippings, and articles; though some files are quite small. Several binders labeled “Marc Simmons Collection” have extensive coverage of the person or subject, including biographical information, correspondence, images, writings, and clippings. Well-documented subjects include the Santa Fe Trail and the Santa Fe Trail Association, Kit Carson, and ironwork and farriership. Well-documented people include Jack Schaefer, Lawrence Clark Powell, David J. Weber, Mark Gardner, John Nichols, Elmer Kelton, Fray Angelico Chavez, Jose Cisneros, Max Evans, Ben K. Green, Rudolfo Anaya, Robert M. Utley, Tony Hillerman, Conrad Richter, John Erickson, Charles F. Lummis, Henry Crawford, Nasario Garcia, John A. Truett, V.B. Price, Jim Sagel, Abe Peña, John Ward, Herminia Chacon Gonzales, Gene Peach, S. Omar Barker, Norman Cleaveland, Neil Goodwin, and George C. Baldwin.

Materials also include some Santa Fe Trail Association and Western Writers of America business files, and some documentation of Simmons books, particularly Children of the West and Southwestern Colonial Ironwork, as well as New Mexico's Cuarto Centennial.

Boxes 1-100 of this inventory constitute accession #2015-172. Boxes 101-173 and map drawers are accession #2016-027.
