I understand that:

- A change of declaration can result in additional required coursework, delayed graduation, and excessive attempted hours. See “Tuition for Excessive Undergraduate Hours,” “Satisfactory Academic Progress for Financial Aid”, and “Tuition Rebate.”
- My eligibility for future financial aid will be based on applicability of enrolled coursework toward my new degree program.
- Some weekend work outside of classroom hours may be required for successful completion of certain REC coursework.
- Students must maintain the following minimum Grade Point Averages (GPAs) in order to enroll in certain degree-required coursework and/or to graduate:
 - Texas State GPA of 2.0*
 - Major GPA of 2.25*
- Some courses must be completed with a grade of ‘C’ or better for degree progress.
 - Repeating courses for grade and GPA improvement can result in Tuition for Excessive Undergraduate Hours.
- In Fall 2020 or later catalogs, completion of an approved Minor is required.
- Depending on catalog year and declaration, elective courses may be required for awarding of this degree.
- Semester course loads may be limited due to course prerequisites and sequencing.
- Some required coursework may be offered on a rotational basis or have limited seat capacity.
- Regardless of catalog year, I will be held to current academic policies and course prerequisites which are subject to change.
