Please visit their website at NBRC.org for additional information on how to obtain credential verification statements.

Based on the Respiratory Care Practitioners Act for the State of Texas (Occupations Code, Title 3, Subtitle K, Chapter 604), the Respiratory Care Practitioner (RCP) license is required to practice respiratory therapy in the State of Texas under the purview of the Texas Medical Board (TMB). An applicant applying for the RCP license can be denied if convicted of any misdemeanor and/or felony offense defined as a crime by statute or common law; or has been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense under various titles of the Texas Penal Code. Misdemeanor or felony convictions under various titles of the Texas Penal Code. Misdemeanor or felony convictions under various titles of the Texas Penal Code may affect eligibility for state respiratory care practitioner license status following graduation and/or admission consideration to the BSRC program. All applications are reviewed to meet required criteria and specific background circumstances are reviewed on an individual basis. Have you been previously convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense?  $\Box$  Yes  $\Box$  No If yes, provide a written explanation.

Texas State University is not required to admit to the program an applicant with a flagged background check who has been given tentative clearance for a license by the Texas Medical Board. Applicants should be aware that such clearance by the TMB does not guarantee an applicant's employability.

I understand that the Respiratory Care Program Admissions Committee cannot make any decision regarding my application until this application, transcripts for all courses, and other supporting material have been received. If I have pre-requisite courses in progress, I understand that if I am accepted into the program that graduation is conditional upon satisfactory completion of the required core curriculum and respiratory care courses.

I certify that the information in this application is complete and correct and understand that the submission of false information is grounds for rejection of my application, withdrawal of any offer of acceptance, cancellation of enrollment, or appropriate disciplinary action.

Notice for Request of Social Security Number for Student Application Process Disclosure of your Social Security number is requested for the student records system of Texas State University and for compliance with federal and state reporting requirements. Federal law requires that you provide your SSN if you are applying for financial aid. Although a SSN is not required for admission to the university, failure to provide your SSN may result in delays in processing your application or in the university's inability to match your application with transcripts, test scores, and other materials. Student SSNs are maintained and used by the university for financial aid, internal verification, and administrative purposes, and for reports to federal and state agencies as required by law. The privacy and confidentiality of student records is protected by law and the university will not disclose your SSN without your consent for any other purposes except as allowed by law. With few exceptions, the individual is entitled on request to be informed about the information that the institution collects about the individual; to receive and review the information; and to have the institution correct information about the individual that is incorrect.
