23

Scenario 1

ABC Legal v. Debra Defendant

What should Bobby Bailiff do??

“I went to 123 W Street to make demand on a writ of execution against Debra Defendant. There were 3 cars in the driveway, so I looked up who the registered owners were. When I saw that Debra had 2, I decided to seize one if Debra didn’t point out any other property to seize. I know 123 W Street is her homestead, because the plaintiff’s attorney did some research and shared it with me”

- 3 cars at her home: 1 registered to Mark Defendant and Debra Defendant (minivan), 1 registered to Debra Defendant (Tahoe), and one registered to Grandma Defendant (car)
- Grandma Defendant’s has been expired for 4 years.

Cathy Constable’s Testimony in Justice Court: “I went to make demand on Bobby, and he lost it. He was very angry and kept ranting about how I can’t take his home. The plaintiff’s attorney had emailed me property records when I received the writ. Bobby’s homestead is a ranch, and it doesn’t even matter. I don’t think this court gets to decide anyway. Of course, I’ll do what you want judge, but I thought real property decisions were not in this court.”

The plaintiff’s research also shows that Bobby owes back taxes on his bookstore as well and his wife filed for divorce 10 years ago, but the case was eventually closed.
