Fill In The Blanks As We Go Along

On some slides in your handout, there will be a blank that you need to fill in.

The word that you need to put in the blank will be bold and teal in the presentation slide.

Example:

- Handout will look like this:
Step by Step _____ Procedure
- Presentation will look like this:
Step by Step Eviction Procedure

5

What is an
Eviction
Case?

6

Eviction Case

- An eviction case is a lawsuit to recover possession of real property from someone who is occupying it.
- If a person is _____, they no longer have a right to remain on that property.
- The most common eviction case is filed by a landlord to remove a tenant from the landlord's property.
--Rule 500.3(d)

7

Parties

- Landlord = the person who owns the property
- Tenant = the person renting the property
- Real Property = land and buildings (like a house)

8

What laws and rules apply?

- Chapter 24 & 92-94 of the Property Code
 - These are laws enacted by the Legislature
- Rule 510 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure
 - This is a rule from the Texas Supreme Court that deals specifically with eviction cases
 - Rules 500-507 (the general rules in civil cases also apply in eviction cases but if there is any conflict, follow Rule 510)
- Any local rules/ordinances that conflict with state laws are not valid.

9

When Can Someone be Evicted?

10

Poll #1:

A landlord can pursue eviction of any tenant at any point if they decide they don't want the tenant living on their property anymore.

- A. True
- B. False

11

- Most Evictions happen when a tenant breaches (that is _____ a term of the lease)
 - Tenant fails to pay their rent.
 - Tenant has pets but lease prohibits this.
 - Tenant has loud parties late at night, but lease prohibits it.

Breach of Lease

12

- An eviction may also occur when a tenant's lease or right to stay on the property has ended but they don't leave.
- For example:
 - The lease is for six months. At the end of the six months, the landlord does not renew and the tenant refuses to move out.

End of Lease

- Sometimes a tenant has the landlord's permission to live there but there is no set period for how long. This is called a tenancy at will.
 - Ex: month-to-month leases, a person allowing a significant other or adult child to live with them.
- If the landlord tells a tenant at will that they need to move out and the tenant refuses, an eviction suit may be brought.
 - In a month-to-month lease, the landlord has to give a month's notice that the tenancy is being terminated.
 - No set time for notice of termination of other types of tenancies at will.

No Fixed Lease

14

- When someone stops paying their mortgage, the bank holding the mortgage may foreclose on their property.
 - When this happens, the house may get sold at a foreclosure sale to a new owner.
 - The new owner has a right to occupy the house and may bring an eviction suit against the former owner.
 - If someone was renting the house from the former owner, they have additional rights, since they probably weren't aware of the foreclosure.

Foreclosure

15

- What if someone never had permission to be on the property in the first place?
 - For example: Someone moves into a hunting cabin. They never had a right to be there; they just started living there and refuse to leave.
- This person is a _____ and the owner may bring an eviction suit to remove them.

Squatter

16

What Do You Say When They Ask You?

17

“Do I Have a Good Case?”

Sometimes someone will ask you: “Should I file an eviction suit?” Or “Can I kick them out for this?”

These are not questions you can answer for them because you are not allowed to give legal advice.

What would you do?

- How would you respond to questions like these? How would you phrase what you say?
- What are the resources you can refer them to?

“Is This The Right Precinct?”

You can tell them that an eviction case must be filed in the precinct where the property is located.

If they ask if they are in the right precinct, you can ask them what the address of the property is and you can then look up that address with them and tell them whether or not it is in your precinct.

19

Notice to Vacate

20

“What is a Notice to Vacate?”

- A notice to vacate is a notice the landlord has to give a tenant saying they have to leave or an eviction suit will be filed.
 - Property Code §24.005
- The notice has to give the tenant a deadline (ex: three days) to move out and the landlord may not file the eviction suit until that deadline is up.
- A notice to vacate is different from a notice of _____ .
 - A notice to terminate merely sets a date on which the lease will end.

21

Must Wait to File Suit?

- The landlord has to prove that they gave this notice to the tenant and gave the tenant a chance to move out before they filed the suit.
- For example, the landlord may not hand a three-day notice to vacate to a tenant and file the eviction suit the same day “in case” the tenant fails to leave.
- If the landlord “jumps the gun,” they are not entitled to a judgment for possession.

22

How Much Notice?

- How much notice does the tenant get?
- In most cases a tenant gets three days' written notice to vacate.
- But the lease might have a shorter or longer period.
 - For example, it might say the landlord only has to give one day's notice to vacate.

-- Property Code §24.005(a)

23

How Much Notice?

Tenant of a Foreclosed Property

- A bona fide tenant of a person who gets foreclosed on gets a 90-day written notice to vacate under the Protecting Tenants at Foreclosure Act (PTFA) as long as they haven't breached the lease.
- However – if the tenant has a bona fide lease with a fixed term (and does not breach the lease), then they get to stay in the house through the end of the lease term, unless the new owner is going to use the house as their primary _____.
- For more info on the PTFA, see Ch. 3 of the Evictions Deskbook.

24

How Much Notice?

Squatter

- A squatter gets a notice to vacate but it can be immediate and oral.
 - For example:
 - “Git off my property right now!”
- Property Code §24.005(d)

25

Poll #2:

A landlord gives you an eviction petition to file. You notice that the petition does not include any information about whether there was a proper notice to vacate. You should:

- A. Reject the filing.
- B. Tell the landlord that he needs to include information about the notice to vacate in the petition.
- C. Accept the filing and flag the potential issue for your judge.
- D. Accept the filing and don't say anything to your judge.

26

Filing an Eviction Suit

27

- An evictions suit starts when the plaintiff files a petition asking the court to evict a person occupying their property.
- In an Eviction case:
 - The landlord or owner of the property is the plaintiff.
 - The tenant or person who is occupying the property is the defendant.

“How Does an Eviction Suit Get Filed?”

28

- When the landlord files a petition, they must also pay filing and service fees or file a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs .
 - The filing fee in most counties is $54.
 - Remember: a clerk must make the Statement of Inability form available for free to anyone without the person having to _____ the form.
 - Rule 502.3
 - A Statement of Inability can sometimes be contested – see Ch. 4, Section A of the Evictions Deskbook for more information on the procedures for this.

Filing and Service Fees

29

- Service fees (which cover the cost of having the Constable serve the case on the defendant(s)) are set by your Commissioners Court.
- Each defendant must be served and a separate service fee paid for each one.
- It is important to verify how many defendants are listed on the petition.

Service Fees

30

Petition Requirements

- A petition in an eviction case must be sworn.
 - This means the plaintiff signs it in front of a notary, the clerk, or the judge.
 - That person also signs the petition, not to say it is true, but to confirm that they saw the plaintiff sign it.
 - Could sign a declaration under “penalty of perjury” instead.
 - The petition must contain the items listed in Rule 510.3(a).
 - Description of premises, the grounds for eviction, info about notice to vacate, amount of rent due, if attorney fees are being sought
- Rule 510.3(a)

31

Where is the Petition Filed?

- The petition must be filed in the precinct where the property is located.
 - This is because the court only has _____ over an eviction suit when the property is located in that court’s precinct.
 - If a case is filed and the property is not in the precinct, the judge should immediately dismiss the case for lack of jurisdiction (no motion or hearing needed).

32

Citation & Service

33

Issuance of Citation

- When a petition is filed and filing fees paid or Statement of Inability filed, the court must immediately issue citation directed to each defendant.
 - This means each person named as a defendant has to be served with a citation so they are notified that they have been sued.
 - It is up to the plaintiff to decide whom to file the case against.

34

- An “_____” is someone who is living at the residence but who is not obligated under a lease with the landlord.
 - For example, a temporary guest of the tenant or the tenant’s minor children.
- Since “occupants” are not on the lease, the landlord may not know who they are and so he doesn’t have to name them.
 - He can evict the “occupants” of the tenant along with the tenant.
 - The occupants’ right to be there is based solely on the tenant’s right to be there.

“And All Occupants”

35

- But what if one of the “occupants” is really a tenant who signed the lease?
 - For example, the wife is a tenant on the lease and the landlord just sues the husband “and all occupants.”
 - The landlord cannot evict the wife who is a tenant just by suing her husband and “all occupants.”
- A judgment or writ of possession may not be issued or executed against a tenant obligated under a lease who is not named in the petition and served with a citation.

-- Rule 510.3(c).

Occupants vs. Tenants

36

Group Discussion:

Randy rented a house from Amber for him and his 10-year-old daughter Thea. A year later, John moved in with them and was added to the lease. Randy has now also subleased the garage apartment to Rebecca. Who is a tenant of Amber and who is an occupant?

Tenant	Occupant

37

What Does the Citation Include?

The citation must:

- Be signed by the clerk under seal of court or by the judge.
- State the plaintiff's cause of action and relief sought.
 - For example, this is an eviction suit seeking possession of the premises, back rent, attorney's fees and court costs.

What Does the Citation Include? (Continued)

- State the date of the trial (not less than 10 days nor more than 21 days after the petition is filed).
- State that if the defendant fails to appear for trial, a default judgment may be taken against them.
- Have a copy of the petition and any other documents filed with the petition attached.
 - Including the Statement of Inability if applicable.

39

How Does the Tenant Get the Citation?

- In an eviction case, only a _____ or sheriff may serve a citation unless the court authorizes someone else to in a written order.
 - It is usually the constable so we will just refer to the constable in this presentation; but the sheriff also has authority to do this.

-- Rule 510.4(b)

40

Poll #3

What if the plaintiff asks the court to authorize the plaintiff to serve the defendant? Should this be allowed?

- A. Yes.
- B. No.
- C. Only if the plaintiff is also a private process server.

41

Service of Citation

- The constable must follow certain rules for how the citation and petition may be delivered.
- If the constable is unable to successfully serve the defendant following these rules, they can request that the judge authorize “alternative service,” which will let them serve the defendant in another way.

For more info on the requirements for service and alternative service, see Ch. 4 of the Evictions Deskbook.

42

When Does the Tenant Have to be Served?

- The tenant has to be served at least 6 days before the day set for trial.
-- Rule 510.4(b)
- The Return of Service has to be filed at least one day before the day set for trial.
-- Rule 510.4(b)

43

How Do You Set an Eviction Case for Trial?

44

- The trial date must be:

- No less than 10 days after the date the petition was filed; and
- No more than 21 days from the date the petition was filed.

Setting the Trial Date

45

- You exclude the day the petition was filed and start counting on the next day.
- You count every day, including Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.
- You include the last day of the period.
- If the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you go to the next day that is not one of those things.

-- Rule 500.5

How Do You Count the Time to Set the Trial Date?

46

Setting Trial Date Example

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
						1
2	(Day 0) Case Filed	(Day 1) Independence Day Holiday	(Day 2)	(Day 3)	(Day 4)	(Day 5)
(Day 6)	(Day 7)	(Day 8)	(Day 9)	(Day 10) First day trial can be set	(Day 11)	(Day 12)
(Day 13)	(Day 14)	(Day 15)	(Day 16)	(Day 17)	(Day 18)	(Day 19)
(Day 20)	(Day 21) Last day to set trial
30	31

47

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	Case Filed
8				Holiday
15
22	Holiday
29

Use the calendar to calculate the trial date range:

The case was filed on the 2nd, and the 12th and 23rd are holidays.

When is the first day trial can be set?

When is the last day trial can be set?

48

Notice of the Trial Date

- The Rules do not state how notice of a trial date is to be given to the _____, but some suggestions are:
 - Give the plaintiff a copy of the citation with the trial date;
 - Have the plaintiff contact the court to find out the trial date;
 - Mail, email or fax notice of the trial date to the plaintiff; or
 - Give the plaintiff written notice of a tentative date upon filing the case.
 - For example, write the court date and time on the receipt.

49

- The tenant must show up for trial on the day and time set in the citation.
- They are not required to file an answer, but they may do so if they wish either before or on the trial date.

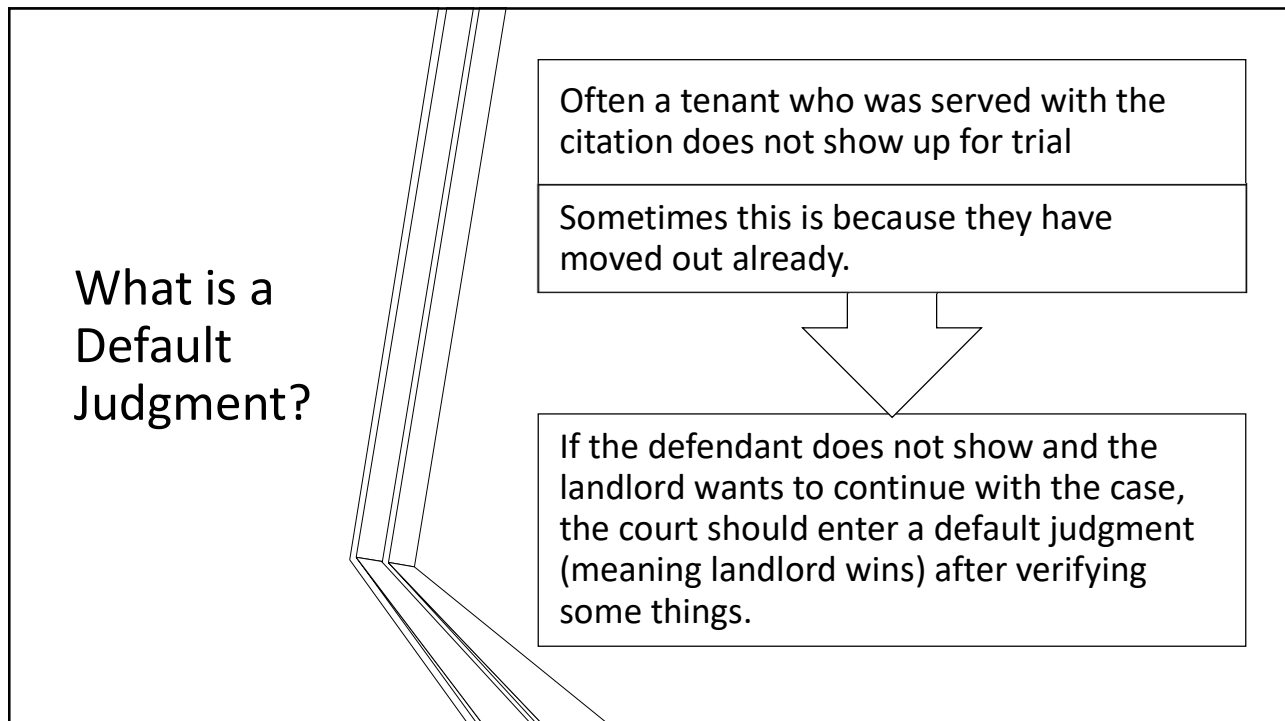

What Does the Tenant Have to Do Once They are Served?

50

Default Judgment

51

52

Requirements for Granting Default Judgment When No Answer Has Been Filed

There is proof of proper service of the citation – Served in an allowed manner at least 6 days before and return filed at least 1 day before.

The petition is sworn to by the landlord and includes all of the required information.

- If something missing, may be amended orally and evidence provided through testimony if amendment will not operate as a surprise to the defendant.
- If nothing missing – no evidence needed.

A Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) affidavit has been filed – more info on next slide.

53

Servicemembers Civil Relief Act – If Defendant Is In Military or It Is Uncertain

- The court cannot go forward with a default judgment if a Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) affidavit stating the defendant's military _____ has not been filed.
- If an affidavit has been filed:
 - If the defendant is not in the military, the court can proceed with the default as normal.
 - See Ch. 7 of the Evictions Deskbook for what to do if the affidavit states that the defendant is in the military or that the plaintiff is unsure whether the defendant is in the military.

54

Requirements for Granting Default Judgment When an Answer Has Been Filed

Service has to have been completed at least 6 days before and the return filed at least 1 day before

The plaintiff must put on testimony under oath and provide all necessary evidence to prove their case.

- Even if all the info is in the petition.
- (This is different from when no answer has been filed!)

55

Notice of Default Judgment

A default judgment must be in writing and signed by the judge.

The clerk must immediately mail written notice of the judgment by first class mail to the defendant at the address of the premises. -- Rule 510.6(c)

56

Poll #4

What if the defendant is not present when the court calls the case, but appears before a default judgment has been entered. What should the court do?

- A. Proceed with the default judgment.
- B. Proceed with the trial and hear evidence from both parties.
- C. Dismiss the case.

57

Trial

58

Proceeding with the Trial

- If both parties appear, the case proceeds to trial and the judge or jury hears evidence and makes a decision.
 - For more info on conducting the trial, see the Trial Notebook and Ch. 4 of the Evictions Deskbook
- If the landlord doesn't appear, the case can be _____ or re-set.
- The trial must be reset if it is less than 6 days after service of the citation on the tenant or less than 1 day after the return of service has been filed.
 - Unless both parties say they want to go ahead and proceed – and no one can be pressured to do so.

-- Rule 510.7(a)

59

Jury Trial

- Any party can make a written request for a jury at least 3 days before the trial date.
- They must pay a $22 jury fee or file a Sworn Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs.
- If no jury is demanded, the case will be heard by the judge.

-- Rule 510.7(b)

60

Postponement

- The trial must not be postponed more than _____ unless both parties agree in writing.

-- Rule 510.7(c)

- Circumstances beyond the control of the court or the parties may require some flexibility in applying this rule.

○ For example:

- Unexpected court closings.
- Original trial date rescheduled due to citation being served less than six days before trial.

61

No Motion for New Trial

- A motion for a new trial is a request by the losing party for a “do over” – a whole new trial.

- No motion for new trial may be filed in an eviction case.

-- Rule 510.8(e)

62

Judgment

63

- A judge must announce the judgment orally in court from the bench following a trial.
- The judgment must also then be put in writing and signed by the judge with the date of the judgment.
 - Refer to TJCTC's sample forms for suggested language!

Written Judgment

64

- If the landlord wins, the judge must enter a judgment for _____ of the property (do not include move out date!), and also award as part of that judgment:
 - court costs;
 - back rent (if any) as of the date of the judgment;
 - attorney's fees (if the landlord is entitled to recover them)
 - See Ch. 4 of the Evictions Deskbook for when this is allowed; and
 - post-judgment interest on any money that is awarded.
 - Nothing else can be sought in an eviction case!
- Rule 510.8(b)

Judgment for Landlord

65

Poll #5

So what happens if the landlord has other issues they want to address, like wanting to be compensated for damages to the premises?

- A. They would have to file a separate small claims case to address any other issues.
- B. They would have to file a case in a different court to address any other issues.
- C. There is no remedy available for this under the law.

66

- If the landlord wins and it is an eviction for nonpayment of rent, the judgment must also note the amount of rent to be paid each rental pay period during the pendency of any appeal
 - Judge determines this based on the rental agreement and any applicable laws.
- Property Code §24.0053(a)

Judgment for Landlord – Nonpayment of Rent Eviction

67

- If the tenant wins, the judge must enter a judgment for the tenant and award as part of that judgment:
 - court costs (for example, the $22 jury fee if the tenant requested a jury);
 - attorney's fees (if the tenant is entitled to recover them)
 - See Ch. 4 of the Evictions Deskbook for when this is allowed; and
 - post-judgment interest on any money that is awarded.
 - No counterclaims allowed in eviction cases – so nothing else a tenant could get without filing a separate case!
- Rules 510.3(e), 510.8(c)

Judgment for Tenant

68

The following notice must be included on every civil judgment (including evictions) that awards monetary damages :

Important Notice

If you are an individual (not a company), your money or property may be protected from being taken to pay this judgment. Find out more by visiting www.texaslawhelp.org/exempt-property.

El Aviso Importante

Si usted es una persona física (y no una compañía), su dinero o propiedad pudieran estar protegidos de ser embargados como pago de esta deuda decretada en juicio en contra suya. Obtenga mayor información visitando el sitio www.texaslawhelp.org/exempt-property.

Protected Property Notice

69

The following notice must be included on every eviction judgment:

You may appeal this judgment by filing a bond, making a cash deposit, or filing a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs within 5 days after this judgment was signed. See Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 510.9(a)

Appeal Rights Notice

70

- If an eviction was for nonpayment of rent, the judgment must also state the amount of the _____.
 - The amount of the bond is set by the judge – more on appeal bonds coming up in the next section.

--Property Code § 24.00511(a), Rule 510.9(b)

Judgment for Nonpayment of Rent Eviction – Appeal Bond Amount

71

Appeal

72

What Can the Losing Party Do?

- Either party (usually the one that loses the case) in justice court may file an appeal.
- An appeal of an eviction case is heard by a county court (or in some counties by a district court).
- Will be heard “de novo”
 - This means the county court hears the case all over again from scratch.
 - The county court does not review the justice court’s decision to see if it is right or wrong.

73

How Does Someone Appeal?

- A party may “perfect” an appeal within _____ after the judgment is signed by filing:
 - An appeal bond;
 - This is a guarantee by the appealing party to pay what the appeal might cost the opposing party if the appealing party doesn’t pursue the appeal, and to pay any judgment and costs awarded against the appealing party if they also lose on appeal.
 - A cash deposit; or
 - A statement of inability to afford payment of court costs.
 - Note: Unless a Statement of Inability is filed, another filing fee is required at this time as well.
- Rule 510.9(a),(b)

74

Contest of Appeal Bond or Statement of Inability

- An appeal bond or a Statement of Inability can both sometimes be contested.
- See Ch. 4, Section F of the Evictions Deskbook for more information on the procedures and timeframes for these contests and what happens if they are sustained.

75

How Do You Count the Time to Appeal?

- The rules for counting days for an appeal are exactly the same as we discussed before with one important exception:
 - If the court closes before 5:00 p.m. on the day the appeal is due, the party gets until the next business day to file their appeal.
- Examples are on the next two slides.

76

Example 1

September
Sun.	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.	Sat.
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
	Labor Day	Judgment for Possession Signed	(Day 1)	(Day 2)	(Day 3)	(Day 4)
10 (Day 5) Fifth day ends on a Sunday; therefore, defendant has until next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday to file an appeal	11 (Day 6) Defendant must file appeal if court does not close before 5:00 p.m.	12 (Day 7) First day of writ of possession may issue	13	14	15	16

Example 2

September
Sun.	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.	Sat.
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
	Labor Day	Judgment for Possession Signed	(Day 1)	(Day 2)	(Day 3)	Day 4)
10 (Day 5) Fifth day ends on a Sunday; therefore, defendant has until next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday to file an appeal	11 (Day 6) Court closes before 5:00 p.m.; therefore, defendant has until the next day to file appeal	12 (Day 7) Defendant must file appeal	13 (Day 8) First day a writ of possession may issue	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30

78

Poll #6

Our court closes at 4:30 p.m. every day. Does this mean the tenant always gets an extra day to file an appeal?

- A. Yes
- B. No

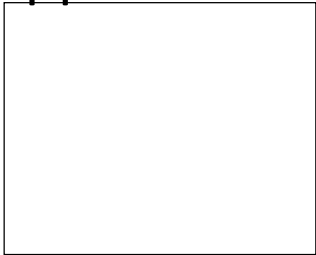

79

How Much is the Appeal Bond or Cash Deposit?

- The judge must set the amount of the appeal bond or cash deposit so that it _____ what it will cost the other party while the appeal is being decided.
 - This may include the loss of rent to the plaintiff during the appeal, court costs, and attorney's fees in both the justice and county courts (if they are recoverable).
 - The court must also take into account any rent that is paid into the registry.

-- Rule 510.11

80

<h2>Payment of Rent During Appeal</h2> 	If a tenant appeals an eviction suit for nonpayment of rent by filing a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs or by filing an appeal bond, then the court must tell the tenant in writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ that they have to pay one month's rent into the justice court registry; ▪ how they have to pay it (cash, cashier's check or money order); ▪ the date it has to be paid, which must be within 5 days of the date they filed the Statement of Inability or the appeal bond; and ▪ that if they fail to pay by the required date, the court may issue a writ of possession without a hearing. -- Rule 510.9(c)(5)(A); Property Code § 24.0053(a-1)

81

<h2>Notice to Other Parties</h2> 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ If a party files a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs, the court must also send a notice to all the other parties no later than the next business day telling them that a Statement was filed. ▪ This form is available at tjctc.org. -- Rule 510.9(d)
--	--

82

If Tenant Fails To Pay Into Registry

- If the tenant was given the notice but fails to pay the rent into the justice court registry by the date given in the notice, the landlord is entitled (upon request and payment of the applicable fee) to a writ of possession, which the justice court must issue immediately and without a _____.
- But this does not stop the appeal! This just means that the tenant will not get to remain in the premises while their appeal is pending.
- Note: If the case has already been sent up to county court before they request the writ, then they must go to the county court to request it.

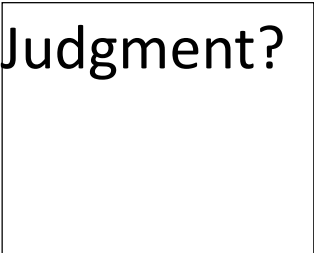

83

Transmission of Case to County Court

- Once the appeal is perfected, the justice court must transmit all of the papers in the case to the clerk of the county court immediately.
- Exception: If a nonpayment of rent case is appealed with a Statement of Inability, the court may not send the case up before 6th day after the Statement was filed unless the rent has been paid into the registry.
 - If the tenant doesn't pay the rent into the registry, TJCTC recommends waiting 1-2 business days after the 6-day period has expired so the landlord can request a writ of possession if they want to.

84

What Happens to the Justice Court Judgment? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Once an appeal is perfected, the justice court judgment is null and void and cannot be enforced.▪ Except the landlord can get a writ of possession while the appeal is pending if the tenant did not pay rent into the registry as required and the case has not yet been sent to the county court.

85

Want More Information? 	See Ch. 4 of the Evictions Deskbook and the “Eviction Appeals” self-paced module for more details about appeal procedures.

86

Writ of Possession

87

What is a Writ of Possession?

- A writ of possession is an order from the court to a constable ordering them to move the tenant out (if necessary) and turn the property back over to the landlord.
- A constable may use _____ force to do this.

88

How Does a Landlord Get a Writ of Possession?

- If the court decides the case in favor of the landlord and signs a judgment for possession, the court has to issue a writ of possession if:
 - the landlord requests one after waiting the required amount of time (see next slide);
 - the tenant has not appealed (or has appealed, but hasn't paid rent into the registry as required and the case has not yet been sent up to the county court); and
 - The landlord pays the writ fee and the fee for having the constable serve the writ of possession on the tenant (or has filed a Statement of Inability).

How Long Does the Landlord Have to Wait Before They Can Request a Writ of Possession?

- The court may not issue a writ of possession until 6 days after the judgment for possession was signed or the day after the appeal deadline, whichever is later.
 - An exception to this is when an immediate possession bond has been issued.
 - See Ch. 4 of the Evictions Deskbook for more info on immediate possession bonds.
