What Does a Justice Court Actually Do?

The Justice Court – The People's Court

- 800+ statewide, each county at least 1!
- Most citizens will only ever interact with a justice court (or municipal court)
- Mostly self-represented litigants (SRLs), fewer attorneys
  - TJCTC has info packets that courts may provide to SRLs

11

Jurisdiction

Although crime shows make most people think of jurisdiction as meaning "location" it actually means "power to act."

Justice courts have power to act (jurisdiction) over many different types of cases.

Types of Justice Court Cases

Criminal – Fine-only misdemeanors

Civil – cases up to $20,000

Evictions – must start in justice court

Truancy – mostly in justice court

Administrative Proceedings

13

What are civil cases?

Civil Cases

 A disagreement between people or entities (businesses/companies)

Two main categories in justice court:

 Small Claims Cases & Debt Claim Cases

- Justice courts hear criminal cases that are punishable by only a fine, or by a fine and specific sanctions that are not jail (such as an alcohol awareness class).
- •Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 4.01 & Art. 4.11.

Criminal Cases

15

Eviction Cases

Evictions are cases where someone is trying to get real property (house, apartment, land, etc.) back from someone else. The person can also be seeking to recover back rent.

Technically civil cases, but have unique processes and procedures.

Truancy Cases

- These used to be handled criminally, but now have their own rules and procedures that aren't quite criminal and aren't quite civil.
- Many courts don't deal with these, but if you do, we have a webpage, webinars, forms, and other materials to help you!

17

Administrative Proceedings

- Occupational Drivers Licenses
- ■Tow hearings
- Animal seizure and cruelly treated animals
- ■Concealed Handgun Licenses
- Drivers License hearings

Staying Out of Trouble

19

Ethics Difficulties

- •The 3 main areas to worry about with judicial ethics are:
  - · Giving legal advice
  - · Having ex parte communication
    - What is that??
  - ·Being or appearing to be biased or partial
    - · Watch out for social media!!

Legal Information vs. Legal Advice

21

What is Legal Advice? – Courts Cannot Give

- ■What lawyers give to clients
- Generally involves advising a client about a particular matter
- Recommends or advises a certain action
- Applies the law to an individual factual circumstance
- Interprets an aspect of the law
- Texas Government Code. Sec. 81.101

What is Legal Information? – Courts Should Always Give

- ■Public information that is a general and factual
- Information about court rules, procedures, administrative practices, and how the court generally functions.

23

What is Legal Information?

- ■Referring litigants to law libraries, state statutes, rules, or forms
- Explaining the meaning of terms used in the court process
- Answering questions concerning due dates and deadlines (without calculating specific dates)

Legal Information vs. Legal Advice

"I cannot give legal advice" "Because that's the way we've always done it."

...is an excuse, not a reason to not assist a customer.

When someone asks you why you can't give legal advice or engage in ex parte communication, have a good, prepared answer to tell them.

•What is a way you can tell them you can't provide this information in a way that doesn't sound like you are being unhelpful? But how does this really work in practice?

27

Legal Advice vs. Legal Information Tips

Often, there is a very fine line between legal advice and legal information.

You can't provide advice, but can provide information that ends up helping them make a decision.

Whether you can answer a question or not, and what you can say sometimes comes down to how it is phrased.

Legal Advice vs. Legal Information Tips

If they say "I've been locked out, what should I do?", you can't advise them, because there are several possible options (writ of re-entry; sue the landlord for money; terminate the lease).

You could instead direct them to the Property Code, and TJCTC has a SRL packet on Tenant Rights available.

If they say "I've been locked out and need to get back in", you can explain what a writ of re-entry is and provide an application. They told you what they are trying to do, even if they don't know the words.

29

Legal Advice vs. Legal Information Tips

If someone says "I don't think they should be able to sue me in this county."

It's OK to say "We can only transfer the case if a motion to transfer venue is filed. You can take a look at Rule 502.4 and decide if you want to file one. If you still aren't sure, you could discuss with a lawyer, there is lawyer referral info at tjctc.org/SRL."

It's not OK to say "You need to file a motion to transfer venue."

So What to Do When You Don't Know What to Do?

37

Step 1 – Ask the right questions: What do you need to figure out?

Step 2 – Find the Right Resources

39

But I already googled it and found out...

Do not rely on information not found in statutes, rules, opinions, cases, or the constitution.

-Such as: Google (or another search engine), Wikipedia, FindLaw, Google Scholar, online news articles, etc.

You can sometimes use this as a jumping off point to figure out where to find something, but always find your answer in official sources of law (class materials and deskbooks will cite these).

4. Texas Statutes & Texas Rules of Civil Procedure (TRCP)

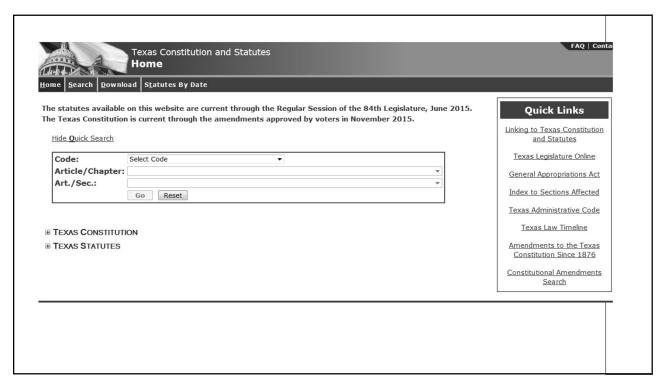

- •All the codes (free!)
- Texas Constitution and Statutes

  - ■Plus, use our Where is the Code Chart!

Legal Resources

Rules of Civil Procedure

Texas Courts

- www.txcourts.gov
  - Also where you find the OCA webpage for your court reports

57

"Justice Court Rules"

Where are the Justice Court rules?

- For the most part, you will only use Part V (Rules 500-510), which were written specifically for Justice Court, and Part VI (rules for enforcing judgments).
- The other Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply unless:
  - (1) the judge hearing the case decides another rule needs to be followed in the interest of fairness; or
  - (2) a law or rule specifically says to follow another rule.

Discussion Scenarios:

- You have an eviction case coming up. You look at your chart and see that evictions are covered in Chapter 24 of the Property Code. Do the Rules of Civil Procedure also apply?
- What if you have a speeding case coming up? Do the Rules of Civil Procedure apply to that?

59
