Experiences in Advertising

The advertising major explores advertising as an art form, a science and a powerful tool for shaping the world around us. Our student-centered program is designed to unlock your creative, strategic and analytical potential while preparing you for a dynamic industry across traditional, digital, social, and emerging media. Students may participate in faculty-led Study Abroad or Study in America trips, learn with peers in Living and Learning Communities, develop professional experience and network in our nationally recognized student organizations and competitions.
