Happy Holidays from Mathworks!

We at Texas Mathworks wish you a happy holidays and all the best for 2011!

Summer math camp applications for 2011 have been posted - apply today. Let your friends and family know too!

Read on for news about a lead endowment gift that Mathworks received, the Primary Math World Contest qualifying test, and other updates.

Jeff & Gail Kodosky pledge $1.5M to establish the Kodosky Foundation Mathworks Endowment

Gift consists of a $300,000 initial donation and a $1.2M challenge match.

"Our gift is ultimately an investment in workforce development, and we encourage others in the high-tech community to step forward and join us," said Jeff Kodosky, co-founder of National Instruments and long time member of the Mathworks advisory board. HSMC "Alumni Legacy Endowed Scholarship" Fund

The Alumni Legacy Endowed Scholarship for the Honors Summer Math Camp (HSMC) is a small, but growing endowment. This endowed fund supports camp scholarships, giving all interested students the opportunity to attend the HSMC.

Thanks to the Kodosky Foundation's challenge match, donations to the endowed scholarship fund will be matched dollar-for-dollar. Support mathematics education and donate today!

Mathworks Curriculum - Video Podcast Project

Sponsored by 3M, the project brings technology into math classrooms in an engaging and exciting way!

The 6th grade students and teachers at Kealing Middle School in Austin have been working on a video podcast project that features students discussing mathematical concepts integrated with the Mathworks curriculum. These concise videos present engaging lessons ranging from Number Lines to Graphing on the Coordinate Plane. See all the videos here - new ones are added every week or so.

Primary Math World Contest Qualifying Test

Mathworks administers this test to help select JSMC applicants as well as a team of four students to compete in the annual PMWC in Hong Kong

The 2011 Mathworks PMWC Qualifying Test has been scheduled for January 13. We invite all interested middle school students to take the test and explore the engaging problems. Tests have been mailed out to all middle schools in Texas - please ask your math teacher/coordinator to make necessary arrangements to take the test.
