2011 Siemens Competition

Mathworks HSMC students continue success in national research competition

Fourteen Mathworks Honors Summer Math Camp students representing five projects were recognized in this year's Siemens Competition! The students worked on original research mentored by university faculty during the 2011 HSMC.

Two of the teams will advance and compete in the UT-Austin site of the regional level of the Competition the weekend of November 12th. Three other HSMC teams were named as semifinalists.

This year an unprecedented total of 1,541 team and individual
