Google RISE Award

The Honors Summer Math Camp is 1 of 14 awardees around the nation

Mathworks has been awarded a $15,000 donation by Google's Roots In Science and Engineering (RISE) program.

Funds will directly support the 2012 Honors Summer Math Camp, in turn providing opportunities to needy students to attend HSMC for free. The HSMC was one of 13 awardees, out of more than 400 applications for an award! Special thanks goes to current Google employees who are also HSMC alumni for supporting our award proposal.
