2015 Siemens Competition

Eleven teams of students worked with professors on original math and science research during the 2015 Honors Summer Math Camp program. These teams then entered their research work into the prestigious Siemens Competition in Math, Science, and Technology. The first round results of the Competition were recently announced, and the following Mathworks teams were recognized:

Semifinalist Teams

1. Lillian Bu, Michelle Hamilton, and Nina Osipova - mentored by Ziliang Zong of the Texas State CS Dept. "Energy-Aware Deep Learning for Image Recognition"

2. Hannah M. Williams, Hannah and Kaitlin B...
