February 2016

- Foundations and companies support the 2016 Mathworks summer math camps
- San Marcos STEM Fair
- Apply to 2016 math camps!

We are honored to be partners with the following foundations and companies in providing mathematical learning opportunities to students of diverse socioeconomic backgrounds:

3M has pledged a donation to support the 2016 Honors Summer Math Camp. Funds will support research opportunities for returning students in the HSMC program.

Silicon Labs has pledged a donation to support the 2016 HSMC. Funds will support the entrepreneurship component of the first-year student experience in the Honors Summer Math Camp.

The Kinder Morgan Foundation has donated to Mathworks to support Houston students attending the Mathworks summer math programs for 2016.

The American Math Society Epsilon Fund has pledged a donation to support the 2016 Honors Summer Math Camp program.

San Marcos STEM Fair

Mathworks attended the San Marcos city STEM Fair in February, providing students and families opportunities to learn more about Mathworks summer math programs while trying their hands at some math puzzles!

Apply to the 2016 Summer Math Camps

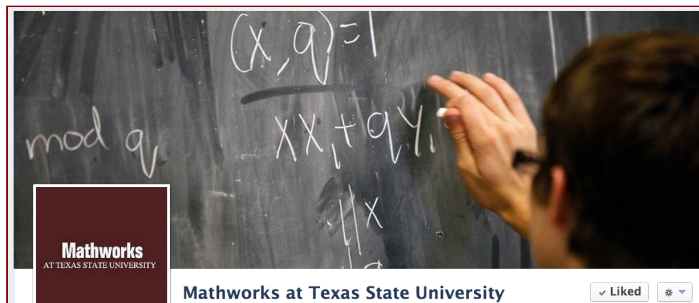

We have four programs in the summer:

- Half-day JSMC in San Marcos for 4th-8th grade students
- Half-day JSMC in Round Rock for 4th-8th grade students
- Residential JSMC at Texas State University for 6th-8th grade students
- HSMC at Texas State University for high school students
