TO DISTRIBUTE ONLINE

- DO NOT post a PDF directly from Canva to the web or email.
- Documents posted on TXST websites must meet accessibility requirements. PDFs created in Canva will need additional work in Adobe Acrobat to ensure these requirements are met.
- Contact Marketing and Communications or Evan Pickrel, TXST's Electronic Information Resources Accessibility Coordinator, for more information about how to use Adobe Acrobat's auto-tagging and accessibility tools so you can distribute your PDFs online.

CHECK YOUR SPELLING AND GRAMMAR

- Check the spelling, grammar, and style of your document.
- Please refer to the Editorial Style Guide for writing guidelines.
- Ensure the information in your publication — including phone numbers, email addresses, and dates — is accurate.

TO POST ON CAMPUS

- To post flyers or posters on campus, get a date stamp from Student Involvement on the fourth floor of the LBJ Student Center.

WHICH STATEMENTS DO I USE?

- You are required to use certain statements in your publications. See our Statements and Inclusions page to review the statements and when they should be used.
- The most common statements are already included on the templates.
