STATE PARKS & OUTDOOR AREAS

With dozens of state parks, local parks, and hiking trails, Central Texas is perfect for outdoor activities year-round. San Marcos has six natural areas with more than 22 miles of trails. Central Texas is home to several lakes and rivers that offer opportunities for rafting, canoing, kayaking, tubing, speed boating, and jet skiing.

FINE ARTS & HISTORY

The Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum in Austin tells the story of Texas. The nearby Ransom Center is the repository of the Gutenberg Bible, the first photograph, Harry Houdini's personal papers, Woodward and Bernstein's Watergate notes, and more. The Institute of Texan Cultures in San Antonio serves as a forum for the understanding and appreciation of Texas and Texans. And, of course, remember the Alamo.

SHOPPING & ENTERTAINMENT

San Marcos is home to the Premium Outlets and Tanger Outlet Center, the third-largest tourist attraction in Texas. Shop for local produce and homemade arts and crafts at Market Days in Wimberley or Gruene. You can find entertainment any night of the week in nearby San Antonio and Austin, the Live Music Capital of the World. Here in San Marcos we have EVO Entertainment with it's reclining cinema seating, bowling, and retro games as well as Cheatham Street Warehouse with it's rich music history.
