Journalism

Mass Communication

The School of Journalism and Mass Communication is an ACEJMC accredited program that offers a curriculum that introduces students to the broad framework of mass communication, emphasizing what is common and fundamental to advertising, electronic media, journalism and public relations.

The mission of the School of Journalism and Mass Communication is to pursue excellence. Our programs strive to cultivate strong professional, research, theoretical, critical and ethical skills in a diverse and engaging environment that prepares students to be socially responsible media professionals, scholars and citizens. Students may earn a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communication or a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Advertising and Mass Communication, Electronic Media and Mass Communication, Journalism and Mass Communication, or Public Relations and Mass Communication.

Students may gain experience by working in student media, such as the University Star, KTSW 89.9 FM, Bobcat Update/Channel 23 News, Bobcat PRomotions, and through internships outside the school. They also have the opportunity to participate in intercollegiate competitions through organizations such as the American Advertising Federation, Public Relations Society of America, Texas Intercollegiate Press Association, National Broadcast Society, and the Society of Professional Journalists.

To earn a Bachelor of Science degree students must complete 120 semester hours, which includes the general education requirements, BS support coursework requirements, 40 hours in the major, and a minor outside the SJMC. Due to ACEJMC accrediting standards at least 72 hours of the total degree must be outside of MC prefix courses. As a result no more than 48 hours of Mass Communication coursework may be counted toward the minimum 120 hours degree requirements. Students should keep this in mind when considering minor, concentration and open elective options.

To earn a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mass Communication, students must complete 120 semester hours, which includes the general education requirements, BA degree requirements, 33 hours in Mass Communication, and a minor outside the school. No more than 48 hours of Mass Communication may be counted toward degree requirements.

For the B.S. degree Community college transfer students may apply no more than 13 semester credit hours of mass communication transfer courses to their degree. Transfer students from four-year institutions may apply no more than 19 semester credit hours of mass communication transfer courses to their degree. Regardless of transfer coursework at least 21 hours of the major coursework must be earned at Texas State.

For the B.A. degree Community college transfer students may apply no more than 12 semester credit hours of mass communication transfer courses to their degree. Transfer students from four-year institutions may apply no more than 15 semester credit hours of mass communication transfer courses to their degree.

Special Requirements

1. Any student admitted to Texas State may declare and be admitted to the program under a temporary status called pre-mass communication. Once a student has accumulated at least thirty credit hours and meets the requirements outlined below, the student will be admitted to the school in full-major status. Students who fail to meet these requirements will not be admitted to the major. A grade of a "C" or higher in the following courses or their equivalents: ENG 1310, ENG 1320, COMM 1310, MC 1100B* and MC 1301. An overall GPA of at least a 2.5 on a 4.0 scale.

*Note: Or a score of 70 or higher on the school's Punctuation, Usage and Grammar (PUG) test.

2. General education core curriculum options should be discussed with an academic advisor. Requirements and choices are listed in the University College section. Students pursuing the B.S. degree cannot take MATH 1316.

3. The Bachelor of Arts degree requires 6 hours of English literature, 2310 and 2320 of a modern language and SOCI 3307. The Bachelor of Science degree in addition to core curriculum requires 3 hours of English literature, SOCI 3307 and 3-4 hours of Math (not MATH 1316), Natural Science or Computer Science.
4. The Punctuation, Usage and Grammar (PUG) test is given by the Texas State Testing, Research-Support and Evaluation Center on the main campus. The PUG is administered weekly; call 512.245.2276 for testing times. There is a fee of $40 per test. Students enrolled at the Round Rock Campus should call the One Stop Center at (512) 716-4000 for testing information.
5. Advising. In an effort to promote the academic welfare of all Mass Communication students, the school strongly recommends that all students seek academic advising each semester. In certain situations, students may have an advising hold placed on their records. Advisors are available year round to assist students with academic issues and concerns. Students can call 512-245-1932 to make an advising appointment.
6. All students must earn a "C" or higher in each of four core courses in Mass Communication, which include: MC 1301-Introduction to Mass Communication, MC 1313-Writing for Mass Media, MC 4301-Mass Communication Law and Ethics and MC 4381-Fundamentals of Digital and Online Media.

8. At the Round Rock Campus only the Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communication degree program is offered.
9. Students are required to submit a senior portfolio before they graduate. Please see the link below for more information. <http://www.masscomm.txstate.edu/resources/advising-home/forms.html>

In addition to core MC courses, the school offers courses to prepare students for work within all areas of mass communication. Students may concentrate their study in Advertising, Electronic Media, Journalism or Public Relations, or elect a general Mass Communication course of study.

For B.S. degrees, students must complete an additional 28 hours. For B.A. degree, students must complete an additional 21 hours. Students should see a Mass Communication Academic Advisor for assistance in planning their programs in these areas of study.

Advertising and Mass Communication

The Advertising (B.S.) sequence aims to help students sharpen their creativity and learn how to solve clients' problems. To the end, the Advertising sequence offers courses that cover the major job descriptions of advertising, such as account management, creative, and media. From the courses, students will get exposed to various issues in the field and learn the skills that are needed to become professional. Further, students will have opportunities to participate in extracurricular activities designed to train and prepare students for the job market through AAF (American Advertising Federation) student advertising competition and Ad Club.

Electronic Media and Mass Communication

The Electronic Media (B.S.) sequence offers courses designed to prepare students for careers in broadcasting, cable, satellite and new media. The courses emphasize journalism, audio and video production, management, and programming by combining skills instruction with decision-making opportunities, which students put into practice while working for student media. Electronic media sequence students receive hands-on experience while working for radio station KTSW, a cable access television channel, and online. Students are also encouraged to seek internships in professional media organizations off-campus.

Mass Communication

The Mass Communication (B.A.) sequence emphasizes theory and research for students interested in graduate school and also provides flexibility for students to study other areas of mass communication.

Journalism and Mass Communication

The Journalism (B.S.) sequence prepares students to be reporters, editors, designers and visual journalists. An emphasis is placed on writing and multimedia skills. Students are encouraged to work with campus media outlets, including the University Star newspaper, and to seek internships with media organizations off campus.

Public Relations and Mass Communication

Based on the skills of writing, graphics and internet tools, Public Relations (B.S.) students learn to develop strategies to effectively communicate carefully designed messages to audiences important to their organizations. Students have opportunities to practice their skills in Bobcat PRomotions, the student-run public relations agency, and in internships in Texas and major cities in the United States.

Mass Communication Majors

Concentrations in Digital Media and Multimedia Production

Any student pursuing a B.S. degree in the School of Journalism and Mass Communication may elect to add a concentration in Digital Media or Multimedia Production. Students who elect to add a concentration can apply the 9 hour concentration towards the 12 hours of advanced MC electives required of the B.S. degree.
